

Students will try to make robots with the lego We Do. They can program them with whatever program they know. Maybe with scratch. Schools that do not have lego create robots with materials of their choice...

